IMPORTANT INFORMATION: Mike's Tech Shop is not responsible for any loss of data. Mike's Tech Shop strongly recommends that you back up all important data before having the unit serviced. If the unit is being submitted for data recovery, Mike's Tech Shop requires a hard drive that is equal to or greater than the capacity of the hard drive data is being recovered from. There is no fee for unsuccessful data transfer/recovery attempts. If the unit is being repaired with Apple Service parts, the defective part(s) will be returned to Apple, especially hard drives. Therefore, any data recovery attempted by Mike's Tech Shop or an Apple-authorized vendor must be completed before Mike's Tech Shop can proceed with any repair.
